Lynn Fronk is a Master Flower Show Judge and an Accredited NGC Instructor of Design & FS Procedure for FS Schools and Symposiums. She is the Symposium Coordinator for NGC Flower Show Schools Committee. She’s taught in 42 states and internationally in Mexico, Cuba, Ecuador, Guatemala, and Columbia. A member of the Crabapple and Stonehenge Garden Clubs, Lynn was State President of the Garden Club of Ohio and won their Mildred-Heter Buckingham Award for service before she moved to GA. Lynn’s a member of the Creative Arrangers of the Americas, the National Flower Arrangers Guild, and Designer’s Club of GA. This busy retired nurse found time to write a booklet on the use of natural materials in holiday designs – Merry Christmas from My House to Yours!

Jan Griffin is an accredited NGC Master Flower Show Judge and an NGC Instructor of Horticulture and Flower Show Procedure for Schools and Symposiums. Born, raised, and educated in Seattle Washington, Jan developed a knack for growing food and flowers only to discover they would not thrive in her new location in Florida! She joined a Garden Club to learn what would work and continued learning as a Flower Show Judge. Jan teaches Floral Design in Florida and Horticulture for FS Schools and Symposiums. She’s been Horticulture Chairman for 5 state flower shows and many district shows and has chaired a Horticulture Show for many years at the local Strawberry Festival. She keeps busy with family, golf, and works in a friend’s florist shop. Her motto is “You need great horticulture to create great designs!”
