Design Banquet: ANNA BURNS

Anna has had the ability to explore many opportunities afforded to her. With over 30 years involved with National Garden Clubs, Inc. exhibiting and judging flower shows, she has honed her skills.

As a National Garden Clubs Master Flower Show Judge and Garden Club of Georgia Basic Floral Design instructor, she shares her knowledge and talent with audiences throughout the southeast United States.

Her book, Guide to the New Petite – Floral Design 12" and Under, was published in 2017. The book is on the Recommended Reading list for Flower Show Schools.

She is a member of the Evergreen Garden Club, Creative Study Club and North Georgia Council of Flower Show Judges where she serves as president. She has membership in Creative Floral Arrangers of the Americas and the National Flower Arrangers.

Anna holds accreditation in public relations and has a liberal arts undergraduate degree and postgraduate degrees in educational leadership. She was the recipient of the 1995 Leadership Georgia's Cora Lee Fanning Award.

She lives in Griffin, Georgia, with her husband Skipper and has two grown children and three grandchildren.
